OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Mercy Surgical Services is seeking an additional physician who is interested in a full-time group practice opportunity. Our office currently consists of one General Surgeon, a surgical Physician Assistant and two Orthopedic Surgeons. There is one additional General Surgeon in private practice in our community. A typical 4.5 day work week includes 2 days in the office with an average of 25 patients per day; 1.5 days of scopes and 1 day of surgery. The goal is to have 8 surgeries per week. As surgery volume grows the amount of time the surgeon spends doing scopes will decrease.

Inpatient care includes:

- Consultations for:
 - Acute abdominal pain
 - Gastrointestinal hemorrhage
 - Sepsis
 - Evaluation of soft tissue masses
 - Skin and soft tissue infection
 - Multiple trauma
- Trauma, initial evaluation
- Thyroid/parathyroid
- Cutaneous lesions/malignancies
- Breast surgery excluding reconstruction
- Extremity amputations
- Debridement of decubitus ulcerations
- Laparoscopic procedures:
 - Cholecystectomy, colectomy, appendectomy, Nissen Fundoplication, diagnostic, etc...
- Emergency laparotomy for trauma, etc...
- Anorectal procedures:
 - Abscess, hemorrhoids, etc...

- Hernia repair
- Gastrointestinal endoscopy, diagnostic and therapeutic (Pediatric excluded)
- Bronchoscopy
- Stomach, small bowel, colon disorders

This is an exciting opportunity for the right physician to join our Surgical team.

RECRUITMENT PACKAGE

Mercy provides a comprehensive compensation and benefits package to physicians, including:

- Guaranteed Base Salary
- Signing Bonus
- Relocation Allowance
