ABOUT THE FACILITY:

Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center – Boise, Idaho is a 381-licensed bed regional referral and trauma center serving people throughout the Northwest. Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center (SARMC) is part of Saint Alphonsus Health System, a new four-hospital regional, faith-based Catholic ministry with more than 4,300 associates and a 950+ medical staff, which serves 700,000 people in two states. The new system is comprised of Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center in Boise, Idaho, Mercy Medical Center in Nampa, Idaho, Holy Rosary Medical Center in Ontario, Oregon and St. Elizabeth Health Services in Baker City, Oregon. Saint Alphonsus Health System is a member of Trinity Health, one of the largest Catholic health care organizations in the United States. Trinity Health is based in Novi, Michigan.

Emphasizing care that is patient-centered, innovative and community based, SARMC focuses on providing services in a spiritual, healing environment, and is renowned for its state-of-the-art digital environment and pioneering technologies; award-winning clinical services; a nationally accredited Life Flight program and the region's Trauma Center. SARMC serves metropolitan Boise and nearly 280,000 people in outlying rural communities in a three-state area with its Life Flight air medical transport service. The Medical Center operates a physician-hospital organization and a management services organization. SARMC was a pioneer in trauma services and in addition to being the designated trauma center for the region, its other centers of excellence include the Heart Center, Cancer Treatment Center, Orthopedic Institute, Idaho Neurological Institute, urgent care centers, and women's and children's services including a Family Maternity Center. SARMC also has a management contract with four rural hospitals. Since 1994, the medical center has operated Project Haiti, a program which provides ongoing support to a pediatric hospital and orphanage in Port-au-Prince.

SARMC also has an intricate system of health and wellness services that extend into the communities around the region. The Saint Alphonsus Medical Group has over 70 primary care physicians throughout the Treasure Valley that provide family-focused health and wellness care for children, adults and seniors. The Saint Alphonsus Health Plaza offers diverse services such as outpatient surgery, urgent care, lab and diagnostic services, rehabilitation services, primary and specialized physician care—in Idaho's most rapidly growing communities.
