SPECIALTY: Family Practice

HOSPITAL: Saint Alphonus Health System
Holy Rosary Medical Center

LOCATION: Fruitland, ID

GROUP PRATICE: Yes

PRACTICE MODEL: Employment

STATUS: Full Time

AVAILABILITY: 2010

REQUIREMENTS: Board Certified or Board Eligible

CALL COVERAGE: TBD

OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS:

Holy Rosary Medical Center/Saint Alphonus Medical Group (SAMG) has an excellent opportunity for a Family Practice physician to join an existing group in Fruitland, Idaho, which is located on the Idaho/Oregon border.

SAMG is seeking a board certified or board eligible Family Practice physician to join Dominican Health Services, a large well-established multi-specialty practice consisting of two Family Practice physicians, an Occupational Medicine physician and four Nurse Practitioners. In addition, various specialists rotate through the clinic in half or full day schedules as community needs dictate. SAMG/Dominican Health Services is conveniently located in the heart of Fruitland, Idaho and has served the Fruitland community for many years creating a robust and loyal patient following. Laboratory, digital x-ray, mammography, CT, and urgent care are also located in the facility.

Family Practice physicians with an interest in OB will also be considered, although OB is not necessary. This position will require Idaho and Oregon licensure, as well as privileges at Holy Rosary Medical Center, an affiliate of Saint Alphonus Health System. SAMG consists of more than 180 board certified physicians and providers located in 20 clinics across Southwestern Idaho.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right Family Practice candidate to join a growing team of physicians and be part of the Saint Alphonus Health System, Holy Rosary Medical Center, and Saint Alphonus Medical Group.

RECRUITMENT PACKAGE:

An excellent salary and compensation package is available. Full benefits, a generous CME stipend, sign-on bonus, relocation assistance, and loan assistance are a few of the many SAMG advantages.

ABOUT THE FACILITY:

Holy Rosary Medical Center – Ontario, Oregon is a 49-bed, acute care hospital located on the Idaho/Oregon border, also known as the Western Treasure Valley. Holy Rosary Medical Center serves Ontario and the surrounding communities in Eastern Oregon and Southwestern Idaho and is part of the Saint Alphonse Health System.

As a progressive health care provider, Holy Rosary customizes services to meet the needs of the patients and the community. Offering a full continuum of health care including acute care, birthing services and newborn care, pediatric care, outpatient services, rehabilitation, home care, and outpatient surgery, Holy Rosary strives to provide the most advanced equipment and sophisticated systems for the treatment of our patients.

Holy Rosary is committed to quality, compassionate health care, and personal service for our patients, our community and the physicians that partner with us to care for their patients. We believe that fostering relationships with our physicians is an integral way to achieve a successful future.

Saint Alphonse Health System is a new four-hospital regional, faith-based Catholic ministry with more than 4,300 associates and a 950+ medical staff, which serves 700,000 people in two states. COMMUNITY DESCRIPTION:

Fruitland, Idaho is located in southwestern Idaho, near the Oregon border. Fruitland is the geographic center or hub of the surrounding cities of Ontario, Payette, Weiser, and New Plymouth. Fruitland is the first city and western entrance to the picturesque Treasure Valley located along the Boise and Snake rivers. Fruitland's elevation is 2,225 feet and is flanked by the Snake River on the west, the Payette River on the north and farmland on the south and east. As its name indicates, Fruitland is the center of one of the most productive fruit growing areas in Idaho.

Recreational activities are a highlight of the surrounding area. The beautiful Owyhee mountains and Boise National Forest are within a short drive. Just north of the Treasure Valley, world class river rafting can be found on the Payette River. The Snake River flows to the south and is home to many wineries and fruit farms. This rural and small town setting is complemented by the fact that the big-city amenities of Boise, Idaho are less than an hour away

Just minutes west of Fruitland is Ontario, Oregon. Located on the eastern edge of Oregon and the largest city in Malheur County, Ontario is community living at its best. Ontario features beautiful scenery and offers activities for everyone.

Fruitland is a wonderful place to raise a family. Great schools, shopping, and recreation are all within the area. A strong sense of community remains integral to life in Fruitland, as sincere, friendly people are enthusiastically involved in neighborhood activities. Fruitland has a pleasant mix of old and new and is a great place to work, play, and live.
